

1.Fill in the blanks.

- We represent the _____ through charts or graphs of different kinds.
- A _____ uses bars to represent the data.
- There are _____ scales in a bar graph.
- A _____ is a circular chart representing the relationship between a whole and its parts.

2.The bar graph shows which activity is most popular amongst children in a class.

- Which activity is the most popular?
- Which activity is the least popular?
- How many children like baking?
- How many children like washing hands?

3.The graph shows the data about students who joined different school activities.

- a. Which activity was joined by more students, singing or painting?
- b. Which activity was joined by fewer students, writing or dancing?
- c. Which activity was joined the most?
- d. Which activity was joined the least?