

L# 7 Animals' Senses

A. Fill in the blanks.

1. _____ uses echo to navigate through water.
2. _____ is a specific area protected by an animal or a group of animals.
3. The tigers roar can be heard up to _____ away
4. Dogs can move their _____ in all directions.
5. Owls can see in low light conditions as they have specialised _____.

B. Choose the correct option.

1. Tigers can see _____ times better at night than humans.
a) three b) six c) nine d) twelve
2. _____ can detect tiny amount of blood in water from great distances.
a) Dolphin b) Whale c) Shark d) Octopus
3. Birds produce different alarm sound to _____.
a) find food b) build nests c) attract mates d) warn others of danger

C. Write True or False.

1. Police dogs are trained to detect explosives. ()
2. Male mosquitoes feed on human blood. ()
3. Dolphins can see only underwater. ()
4. The queen ant search food for the entire colony. ()
5. Owls can hear even the faintest sounds . ()

D. Match the following.

1. Pheromone
2. Whiskers
3. Sharp vision
4. High frequency sound waves
5. See well in low light
6. Strong sense of smell